

Based on reports from the American Radio Relay League I am concerned that if BPL is widely implemented using current methods it will cause significant interference to existing users of the HF spectrum.